A moment of truth, of enlightenment. It was a time when we seized the day, went after what was right. It is a time like that morning in May, when the majority of our school protested the budget cuts and teacher lay offs. When we stood up to preserve education for those behind us, hoping to leave a gift of education, a gift of wisdom.

A moment of Wisdom

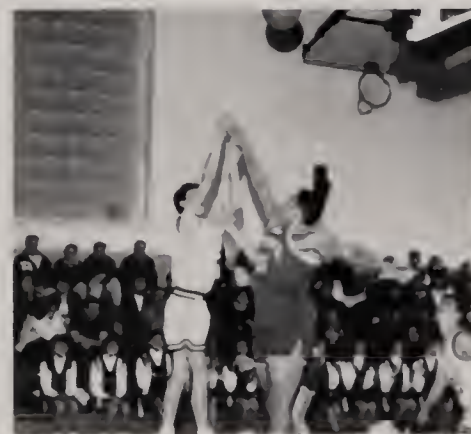

A Moment of Triumph

A moment when we achieved what was once unattainable; a moment of victory. A time when we held our heads high and smiled upon others from the top of the world. A single shot against Medway's goalie during a soccer game or perhaps a spike against Holliston in a heated volleyball match which may have clinched a victory.

A Moment of Celebration

A moment to put all worries aside and to celebrate the present. A time for fun and laughter. A moment when everything in life is good. A time to be carefree and rejoice. Special times, like spirit week when proudly demonstrated our school spirit and rallied behind our sports' teams, or the prom, a night that holds a special place in one's heart. Events like these when we share in the excitement that fills the air. Moments like these when we are ourselves, are moments of celebration.

A moment to cherish for life. A time to reflect on a precious memory. A split second glance, perhaps a warm smile or a friendly touch that may linger for a lifetime, that remains in our minds, forever in the present.

moment
to Remember

Moment
in Time

What is a moment in time? To me, it is when you fully appreciate the world around you, but it is different for everyone. It could be a gentle touch, a subtle glance, or a special event. It may have already happened, it may be happening now, or maybe the future holds that special moment.

As a nation, we have shared many historic moments in the world. Many changes have occurred in the past few years. Events like the end of communism, the unification of Germany after the crumbling of the Berlin Wall, and the heroics of our troops in Desert Storm have had an impact on our lives. Have you shared in some of the triumphs of the moments we have lived through?

In our years at Bellingham High we have witnessed many changes. Glancing through these pages brings to mind several moments, allowing old memories to resurface. Memories such as receiving my class ring, or attending the Freshman Semi-Formal, and Spirit Week rekindle special feelings and emotions; special times I have shared with my classmates and teachers. It is our hope that we have captured, in some way, your moment in time.

SENIORS

THIS IS DEDICATED

To Our Friend,

This is simply a letter of thanks and appreciation. You came into our lives bringing joy and spreading your smile to everyone. All of us whom you have touched feel fortunate to have had the chance to know you and feel great sorrow to have lost you.

Losing you brought a whole school and town closer together. Teachers and students became friends, and everyone holds on to each other just a little tighter.

You are not gone, not even close. Your friends keep you alive with their stories of your sense of humor, great personality, and many achievements.

We will see you again, Dan. Until that time you will be greatly missed. Thank you.

Love,

Your Friends

Four years too soon, have gone by and now, here it is, time to say goodbye. For 4 years you have helped and guided, trying so desperately to steer us in the right direction. You have held us together when we believed all may be lost. In the midst of confusion you were there when the smoke cleared. You have helped our class and touched our lives in unforgettable ways. It is not so much the big things that we want to thank you for, but for the little things, the care, the support, and the faith you have had in us for the past years. Memories can be made and memories can fade, but all that you have given of yourselves will never go away because it remains in each one of us. It has become a part of us. For all that you have done and all that you have unselfishly given, we thank you. As we leave BHS, we would like you to know that you will be with us wherever we go, for we could not have come this far without you.

*THANK YOU,
MR. VENTO and MR. DALPE*

Halloween 1991 rolled around and the spooks (or shall we say kooks) were out for a festive romp in the halls of BHS. Images from all walks of life and death appeared — from our resident exorcist Fr. Clinton to our friendly Spirit Casper. We all had a great time and the memories will certainly haunt us forever.

Prom 1992 — Sheraton Tava

With the lights turned low and the music turned high, this year's juniors and seniors danced the night away at the Sheraton Tara in Framingham. Unlike the weather, few spirits were dampened by the rain. The colors maroon, silver, and white decorated the ballroom while everyone glided across the floor to the theme "Wonderful Tonight." Now, the memories of Prom 1992 are captured in these yearbook pages.

SENIOR CLASS TRIP

Early in the morning on Thursday, May 28, the senior class gathered in the high school parking lot and climbed into three yellow school buses. The destination was High Meadow in Granby, Connecticut, the site of the senior class trip. Feelings were of curiosity and of slight apprehension, for this was the first time that any class had broken tradition by not going to the Frank B. Davis Resort. In addition, the weather seemed to be verging on rain, threatening to spoil the day.

The ever-spirited seniors lucked out, fortunately, and in no time the sun peeked out from behind the clouds. High Meadow proved to have something for everyone, with activities ranging from bocce to horseback riding.

Friendly competitions were abundant throughout the day between the several schools in attendance. Some Bellingham victories included a tie for second place in the Egg Toss Contest by Don Lussier and Kellie Gorman, second place in the Pie Eating Contest by Matt "Goody" Goodnow and Kerri Fedorchak, and a commendable third place in the Lip Sync Contest by Brendan Mulvey for "Hotel California." The "Madzone's," a softball team managed by Barry Lariviere and Guy Mazzone, made it to the semifinals in competition. The all-female volleyball team "The Norm's" made it to the finals, but had to forfeit because the majority of the team was horseback riding at the time of the scheduled game!

The weather may have been too cool to swim for most people (the temperature was in the 70's), but almost everyone found something fun to do. All in all, the senior class trip at High Meadow was a success!

CLASS

DAY

SENIOR BANQUET

June 4, 1992, marked the Class of 1992's last night out together at the traditional senior banquet, held at the Bocce Club in Woonsocket. The seniors danced until midnight with characteristic energy and excitement. Highlights included the presentation of awards for the senior-voted faculty superlatives and the faculty-voted senior superlatives, and a male dance contest won by Rich Nummela. The senior banquet definitely had moments to remember!

MOMENTS FROM THE PAST . . .

CLASS HISTORY

At last, the days we have been waiting for have finally arrived. The Bellingham High School Class of 1992 is going to graduate tomorrow.

At the beginning of our freshman year Mr. Dalpe and Mr. Vento took on the challenge and became our class advisors. We elected our first set of leaders — President, Melanie Shields; Vice President, Melanie Lawrence; Secretary, Robin Lavallee; and Treasurer, Steve Dozois. The highlight of our freshman year was our semi-formal. The High School cafeteria was decorated turquoise, black, and silver, with the theme "Lost in Your Eyes." Our class chose not to have a court.

Sophomore year marked the halfway point of our high school career. Our class leaders changed slightly. We kept our president, Melanie Shields; vice president, Melanie Lawrence; and secretary, Robin Lavallee, but we elected a new treasurer, Kerri Fedorchak. On April 7, we all gathered in this school gym for our Ring Dance. The gym was decorated with purple, gold, and white, and the theme "Take My Breath Away" set the tone for the evening. Our first court was chosen: Queen Melissa Shaw and her princesses Martha Pinet, Colette Mazzola, Melanie Lawrence, and Robin Lavallee. Our first King was Jeff Gamache and his princes included Dave Ramirez, Mike Kelly, Ron Howerton, and Dan Nugent.

The start of our junior year brought another change in our elected officers. Our new president was Eric Nethery; vice president, Melanie Lawrence; secretary, Robin Lavallee; and treasurer, Kerri Fedorchak. We attended our first Christmas Party at the Bocce Club in Woonsocket and brought in the new year with much excitement. Our Junior Prom was held at the Royal Plaza Hotel in Marlboro. The chosen court was: Queen, Kelly Gorman; King, Mike Dailey; princesses, Lisa Schiavone, Colette Mazzola, Heather Fagnant, and Kerri Fedorchak; and princes, Jeff Gamache, Ron Howerton, Dave Ramirez, and Rich Nummela.

At the end of our junior year we elected the set of officers which would lead us in our senior year. They were: president, Eric Nethery; vice president, Melanie Lawrence; secretary, Melissa Shaw; and treasurer, Kerri Fedorchak. Before we even knew it we were seniors. As Homecoming soon approached we chose Lisa Schiavone as our Homecoming Queen while Michael Odabashian and Dana Degan were named Class Marshalls. We once again danced all night December 20 at the Bocce Club where our last Junior-Senior Christmas Party was held. Soon Prom decisions were to be decided. We shared our prom together at the Sheraton Tara in Framingham. The ballroom was sparkling with the colors maroon, silver, and white as we all danced to a perfect theme "Wonderful Tonight." Our last court consisted of: King, Scott McMillan; Queen, Jennifer Bauer; princesses, Heather Fagnant, Kerri Fedorchak, Christina Mayo, and Tammie Young; and princes, Jason McLaughlin, Ivo Rivera, Tom Porter, and Edgar Charland. On May 20, our senior class organized a successful walkout to protest budget cuts. Finally, most of us gathered in this school parking lot one last time and climbed into school buses for our class trip to High Meadow in Granby, Connecticut.

Classes may have seemed like hours, and hours seemed like days, but now we are done. Time is standing still as our Class History is now becoming dreams and memories in a single album. Tonight is our Senior Banquet and tomorrow is our last day together as we graduate. May your dreams and memories lead you to a better future.

Barbara Levesque will become the Doctor Ruth of the next century.

Martha Pinet will open her own store and sell only big bows, bottles of water, and unmatching socks.

Tammie Young will become the next Sally Jesse Raphael, trying to solve everyone's problems.

Kim Donaldson will become a rich lawyer that will end up losing all her money and living in her Ferrari!!

Melissa Cadman will have to have someone hold her hand at her wedding because she will be too afraid to do it alone.

Jon Giles will someday become the president of the Fair, and expand his operations across the United States. Unfortunately, he will be audited by the I.R.S. and thrown in jail for tax evasion.

Dave Ramirez will open the nation's largest stationery store, filling it with the items that he stole while at Bellingham High School.

Kyle Normandin will graduate from G. Tech, but no one will tell him what to do.

Gato will become too sexy for himself, go to India, shave himself bald, and chill with celibate monks on a mountain.

Jennifer Baar will one day fall in love with the monk of her dreams.

Renée and Ronny will become the next Barbie and Ken models.

Martha will be forced to file bankruptcy after her prom-coordinating business goes under because she insisted on giving away hair-bows as prom favors. (Maroon ones, of course.)

Steph will be arraigned on forgery charges, but the judge will set a low bail because he knows she can't go very far without a license . . . except straight into a mailbox, that is.

Kerri will go on to solve the problems of the world through her intense studies of the fuzzy growth on the fajita-shaped object stuck behind her couch . . . or was it a frisbee?

Mr. Cleary will be mistakenly buried alive by his A.P. English class while he's suffering a catatonic trance due to the shock of being appointed for jury duty . . . in Puerto Rico!

Ronny will be kidnapped from a Provincetown beach by six men wearing Speedos who want him to star in their home videos. Renée will rush to his rescue screaming, "He's MINE!!," but Jodie will just sit and laugh.

Renée, Steph, Paul, and Martha will all come back to teach school for a day so they can be "Like Mike, if we could be like Mike . . ."

Sue Guerin will go on to publish the movie Desperate Cries, starring Jason Priestley as Johnny, but still keeping Katie Clancy in her perfect role as the ditzi blonde. Then will start the mini-series with an all new cast, except for Katie, who will still be playing her role.

Jessica B. will become the next K.B. on MWC! Huh. I lied Jess!

In five years Jeff Gamache will get a brain reduction so he can fit more of his ego inside his head.

Robin will drop out of med school and try a music career. She'll hit the road with her group, the Hippy Lippies, but then take on a solo career under the artist name of Sinead O'Lavallee.

Melanie, Aynn, and Susan will open their own Chippendales joint, and have Steve, Matt, and Joel as their opening show.

Kathy Moore will become a flight attendant on an airline that flies only to Puerto Rico.

Bobbie Lee Purich will finally be able to make a decision of her own and stick with it.

Paul Frain will become a driving instructor for Jenny's Auto School.

Kris Normandin and Martha Pinet will buy the tropical snow ice machine and set it up in the Bellingham High School Cafeteria to make a lot of money. Special of the Month Flavor will always be Coconut.

The senior class leaves Sue Guerin an award for writing the most thought-provoking play, Desperate Cries.

Martha will finally admit she's wrong.

Kristine Normandin will change her name to "Weird Kris Norm" and put out an album of famous rap songs with the words changed to fit any situation.

Kerri and Goody will learn to handle their liquor!

Melissa Cadman will work at Bradless the rest of her life and aim to be just like Ms. Keane.

Barry and Jon will open their own bar and serve Melanie every exotic drink they can think up.

Aynn will date a married man who's three times her age and still believe that he's good for her.

CLASS SONG

NOW IT'S TIME

We all grew together.
Now we must learn to bloom on our own.
In a new field, in greener pastures
A meadow of dreams, now it's time to Let it Go

We are now moving ahead ready to take a chance worlds of opportunity
A world of hopes, now it's time to Let it Go

Refrain:

What does the future hold?
All its mysteries are lying ahead
Waiting to unfold them
We'll never know until we take a chance
All we have to do is Let it Go

Inside we are ready, ready to Make our dreams come true
Only we have the power to succeed
Now we are ready to Let it Go

All we have to do is Let it Go

As T. R. Lowell once wrote, "Nothing is as rare as a day in June," and indeed, for the graduates sitting here today, this particular day in June is rare and priceless. Today is a turning point in our lives, marked by both joy and sadness. It is sad to leave those people with whom we have spent nearly one third of our lives laughing, crying, or talking, yet it is in essence a happy day, a day to celebrate, because all of us here are winners, winners who have braved and conquered the challenges of high school and of adolescence.

Theodore Geisel, also known as Dr. Seuss, summed up the feelings and thoughts of graduation best in his own graduation speech and book Oh, the Places You'll Go! I'm going to read some excerpts of his simple but wise words, because they capture the optimism and reality of commencement:

Congratulations! Today is your day. You're off to Great Places! You're off and away! You have brains in your head. You have feet in your shoes. You can steer yourself any direction you choose. You're on your own. And you know what you know. And YOU are the guy who'll decide where to go. You'll look up and down streets. Look 'em over with care. About some you will say, "I don't choose to go there." With your head full of brains and your shoes full of feet, you're too smart to go down any not-so-good street. And you may not find any you'll want to go down. In that case, of course, you'll head straight out of town. OH! THE PLACES YOU'LL GO! You'll be on your way up! You'll be seeing great sights!

You'll join the high fliers who soar to high heights. You won't lag behind, because you'll have the speed. You'll pass the whole gang and you'll soon take the lead. Wherever you fly, you'll be best of the best. Wherever you go, you will top all the rest. Except when you don't. Because, sometimes, you won't. I'm sorry to say so but, sadly, it's true that Bang-ups and Hang-ups can happen to you. You can get all hung up in a prickly perch. And your gang will fly on. You'll be left in a Lurch. You'll come down from the Lurch with an unpleasant bump. And the chances are, then, that you'll be in a Slump. And when you're in a Slump, you're not in for much fun. Un-slumping yourself is not easily done . . . (But) somehow you'll escape all that waiting and staying. You'll find the bright places where Boom Bands are playing . . . On and on you will hike. And I know you'll hike far and face up to your problems whatever they are . . . And will you succeed? Yes! You will, indeed! (98 and $\frac{3}{4}$ percent guaranteed.) KID, YOU'LL MOVE MOUNTAINS!

And as I look out onto all your faces today, I am filled with utmost feelings of hope and optimism, because I know we will move mountains! I can see the smiles of my classmates who will soon be joining the work force, or going into the military, or moving on to further education. I, too, must smile because I can actually see the success in your eyes. In them is that sparkle of determination that is prepared to assert itself over any future obstacles.

All of us here today have the ability to become successful. We all have the basis of a good, strong education, and equally important, we are determined and excited for the future. I challenge you, the class of 1992, to make the excitement last. Conquer apathy and ignorance with spirit and emotion. And remember, life is a learning experience, so live it to the fullest!

Today we end our six years at Bellingham Memorial Jr. Sr. High School. In those six years while we were protected by the sheltering walls of BHS we watched rapid changes in the world around us. In those six years we have seen countries fall apart and new ones form, we watched communism fall, the Berlin Wall come crumbling down, and we watched our own country go to war. History was changing faster than we could learn and history books became obsolete before their time. In the midst of a recession we saw changes in our own school as it tried to cope with the economic difficulties of reduced state and federal aid facing it. It is not always easy for education to prevail in these economically troubled times as funding for our schools seems to be cut each day. My hope is that education can still survive and the youth of America can succeed in a world weighted down by difficulties.

Some adults in our society feel that the youth of America are lazy and apathetic. A few days ago a customer came into the store where I work complaining that our generation wasn't worth two cents. What he in his close-mindedness failed to see and what leaders everywhere must begin to realize is that it was past generations who created the problems that our generation faces and must fix and that without funding for our schools there won't be any leaders for this country in the future.

Sometimes in our society it may seem that there are more problems than there are solutions. With the depletion of our ozone layer and the pollution of our environment one begins to wonder if these problems can be reversed. It is up to us to find ways to help our environment and to stop its destruction. We can not let these serious problems be ignored. Unless we do something now, it will be impossible to preserve this earth for future generations. I hope that the members of this graduating class can overcome these obstacles and prove doubters wrong by showing them that we can make it and that we are not just stock characters in this world.

We all shared and walked together through life for these six years, and now we are all going in our own directions to make a beginning out of an end. We will strive toward our goals and hopefully reach them. We will carry with us the courage of our friends and the memories that can never die. We can say now we are educated, something that can never be taken away from us, but we can't let it stop here. We must always try to learn more, for only those who continue to seek knowledge will ever find the truth. Graduation can best be summed up by a poem written by Shel Silverstein entitled "This Bridge."

"This bridge will only take you half way there
To those mysterious lands you long to see:
Through gypsy camps and swirling Arab fairs
And moonlit woods where unicorns run free.
So come and walk a while with me and share
The twisting trails and wondrous worlds I've known.
But this bridge will only take you half way there —
The last few steps you'll have to take alone."

As we leave this world of homerooms, hallway passes, and yellow school buses we can always hold on to those memories that give us the strength to continue on.

SALUTATORIAN

Kerri leaves Jodie three Wild Berry wine coolers, a hell-ride down High Street, a gun to shoot Jim, a bird, an acceptance to Reed College (you'd be their hero), a real date to the Ring Dance and Junior Prom, and everlasting appreciation for being a true friend. Good luck at Bradford!

Kerri leaves Stephanie a frappe machine that doesn't bite, lunch at Chelo's, a plane ticket to Texas to visit Brett, an informative walk on the beach, endless Sunday night gab sessions, and a bus ticket to Amherst. Thanks for always providing a shoulder to cry on!

Kerri leaves Matt a big thank you for helping me to stand on two feet when I couldn't by myself, and a sorry for the Saturday night rejection, but hey, I think you may have regretted it!

Kim leaves Bobbie Lee, Mike, Bobby, Eric, Richie and John Cafe Brooks.

Kim leaves Bobby a big hug and thank you for listening to all of my problems and the breakdown lane on 95 north to do whatever you want in.

Kim leaves Mike a cheeseburger — PLAIN, Jessica's paper route for some extra cash, a buddy to stay up and keep you company when your not tired, a game of clue and always remember you can run but you can't hide.

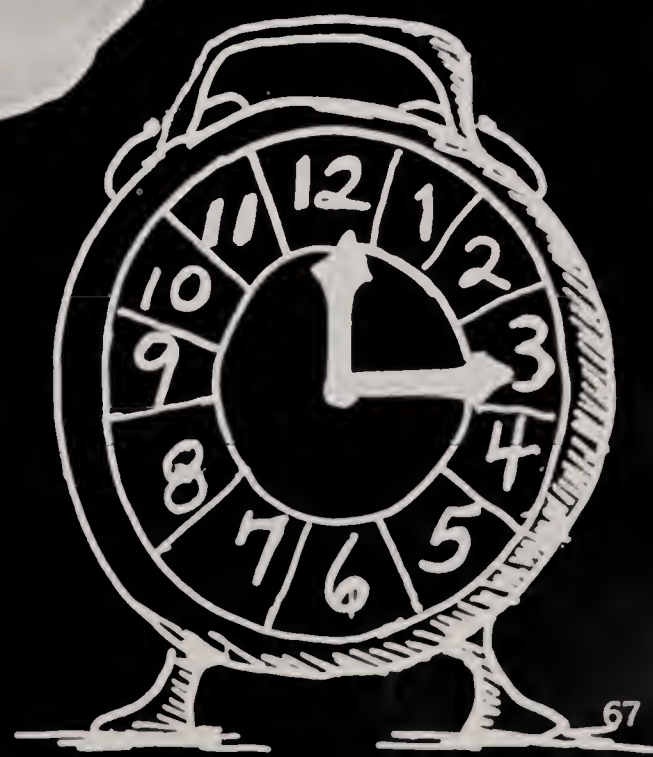

Kim leaves Kara a blue Toyota for everyone to jump on, Shawn from the Cape, a vacation in California, a 3 o'clock in the morning chat about guys, a toothbrush from the hospital, Munger, one more time to get caught by Joyce after curfew, a spare rib bone to gnaw on, at least one weekend next year that we might possibly see each other because you're not with Matt and an SBF for life. Thanx for everything. I'll miss you bunches next year so I'm also leaving you a pen, paper and a book of stamps so you can write.

Kim leaves Bobbie Lee a bottle of cherry brandy, a glass of chocolate milk for the morning after, our cruise, many more years at Hampton, a 2-liter of Purple Passion in North Field, a night on the beach with Paul and Richie, one more "personal" talk, Eeeerie, a sense of direction, BERTO, a vacuum for those 2 o'clock in the morning urges, a date with Al Fegan, a special thanks for always being there, a big voodoo doll of Tammy and daiquiri day.

Jodie leaves Dave R., Jon G., and Tom P. a Chinese dinner and an invitation for next Christmas.

The soccer team had another disappointing season this year. It was a very young team. This team was led by co-captains Steve Dozois and Barry Lariviere. This team also produced two Tri-Valley League all-stars: Steve Dozois and Kevin Yeaton, the first goalie from BHS to receive this honor. Although the soccer team has not had a winning season, yet, they will have their moment in time.

What the heck is he doing?

SENIOR ATHLETES

GOLF

The golf team ended the season with a final record of 2-14. Although it wasn't a very good season, the team members had fun. The team was led by Chad Trudeau who made it to the state finals. Chad is only the second in the school's history to achieve such an accomplishment.

SCHOLAR ATHLETES

Throughout her high school career, Kris has made a lasting impression on her teammates and her opponents. During her senior year, Kris was selected to the All-Star team by the Milford Daily News, the Woonsocket Call, and the Middlesex News in volleyball, softball, and basketball. In addition Kris was also a participant on the Bay State Volleyball team, and the Junior Olympics.

In the fall this outstanding student athlete will attend the University of Rhode Island on a full scholarship for volleyball. We wish Kris the best and know she has a promising future.

Ron is an outstanding athlete who has excelled in both football and track throughout his high school career. He holds the Division III state record in the 200 meter dash. In football Ron holds the school's rushing record of 1200 yards and also broke the single game rushing record when he rushed for 336 yards against Ashland.

For the first time in the history of Bellingham Football Ronny has been selected to play in the Shriners All-Star game and has received the Sportsmanship Award for the Tri-Valley League.

Ronny was also honored as a Student Scholar Athlete and appeared on ESPN's Honor Roll program for his accomplishments.

Ronny has been selected an All-Star in both football and track by the Milford Daily News, the Woonsocket Call, and the Middlesex News.

In the fall this outstanding student athlete will be attending the University of Massachusetts on a full scholarship for football. We wish Ronny the best and are confident that his future will be promising.

The Little Boy and the Old Man

Said the little boy, "Sometimes I drop my spoon."
Said the little old man, "I do that too."
The little boy whispered, "I wet my pants."
"I do that too," laughed the little old man.
Said the little boy, "I often cry."
The old man nodded, "So do I."
"But worst of all," said the boy, "it seems Grown-ups don't pay attention to me."
And he felt the warmth of a wrinkled old hand.
"I know what you mean," said the little old man.

— Shel Silverstein

In today's world, teenagers often feel like the little boy and the old man mentioned in the poem above. As students we are faced with fears of the future and we often wish that time would stop for a little while so that we could postpone the reality of these fears. The faculty at Bellingham High School has made growing up a little bit easier for each and every one of us. Knowing that we have older mentors, friends and teachers who listen and encourage, gives us the incentive to move forward through both the good and the bad. Our teachers have recognized each of us as an individual and given us the chance to reach out for our dreams. Thank you, friends, for helping us through the past six years and most of all for believing in us.

Mr. Conti
Dept. Head

Social Studies

"The disadvantages of men not knowing the past is that they do not know the present. History is a hill or high point of vantage, from which alone men see the town in which they live or the age in which they are living."

— G. K. Chesterton

Mr. Andreoni

Mr. Cheever

Mr. Dalpe

Mr. Gayer

Mr. Kowalczyk

Mr. McDonough

Mr. Suffoletto

Mr. Vento

Mr. Anderson

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

"We are under-exercised as a nation. We look instead of play. We ride instead of walk. Our existence deprives us of the minimum of physical activity essential for healthy living."

— John F. Kennedy

Mr. Bonollo

Mr. Spera

Miss Xenos

Mr. Beaulieu
Dept. Head

Science

"People must understand that science is inherently neither a potential for good nor evil. It is a potential to be harnessed by man to do his bidding."

— Glenn T. Seaburg

Mrs. Bonollo

Mr. Christie

Mr. Cohn

Mrs. Lehr

Miss Manning

Mr. Porter

Mr. Tardif

HOME ECONOMICS

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

"The American, by nature is optimistic. He is experimental, an inventor and a builder who builds best when called upon to build greatly."

— John F. Kennedy

Mr. Bogdan

"In the love of home, the love of country has its rise."

— Charles Dickens

Mrs. Turcotte
Dept. Head

Mrs. Evers

Mr. Rook

BUSINESS

"That's the definition of business, something goes through, something else doesn't. Make use of one, forget the other."

— Henry Becque

Mr. Ciavarini

Mr. Gariepy
Word Processing

Mrs. Gray

Mrs. Guillemette

Mrs. Robidoux

Mrs. Sanocki

ART

"If you ask me what I came here to do in this world, I, as an artist will answer you: I am here to live out loud."

— Emile Zola

Mrs. Finlay
Dept. Head

MUSIC

"The trouble with music appreciation in general is that people are taught to have too much respect for music; they should be taught to love it instead."

— Igor Stravinsky

Mr. Schreffler
Band Director

Mrs. Dion
Dept. Head

MATH

"Arithmetic is where the answer is right and everything is nice and you can look out the window and see the blue sky — or the answer is wrong and you have to start all over and try again and see how it all comes out this time."

— Carl Sandburg

Mrs. Beck

Mrs. D'Alfonso

Mr. Fox

Mr. Pepin

Mr. Plasse

Mrs. Slater

Miss Fafard

Quest

"The only way to have a friend is to be one."

— Emerson

LIBRARIAN

"Some books are to be tasted, others to be swallowed, and some few to be chewed and digested."

— Francis Bacon

Mrs. Langenberg

Special Education

"No bird soars too high if it soars with his own wings."

Mr. Gauvin

Mr. Guillemette

Mrs. Kocon

THANK YOU

Through all the anger and frustration, all the joking and the laughter,
you kept us going.

Despite the missed deadlines and the headaches,
and all the many times we've deserved slaps,
you stood by us.

Thank you Mrs Flanagan for everything you have done,
for us and our yearbook.
